Island Idol

The Middle Country Public Library recently hosted Island Idol, which featured talented teens who battled it out for the title of Best Performer at the annual artistic competition. The teen singers, dancers, actors, guitarists, musicians and bands performed center stage for a panel of judges from the entertainment industry.

The event was emceed by seven teen hosts and featured 21 versatile acts that entertained the 339 fans in attendance. The event was sponsored by King Kullen, the Allstate Foundation and Friends of the Middle Country Library.
